

SPONSORSHIP

Create opportunities for growth in your organization.

There's no doubt that companies that have employees who are taking the Creative Executive Method course benefit. So why not sponsor and create more opportunities to foster growth and training within your organization?

Creative Executive Method Benefits

With a two-hour weekly commitment, people who have taken this course experience:

- Greater strategic thinking for their teams
- Increased alignment with team members in the area of communication + direction
- Amplified engagement with peers
- Clarity around vision for themselves, their departments, and their teams
- Leadership, management, and communication skills and tools applicable to their current work environment and culture
- Tips + tools for creating more innovative cultures
- Peer insights across industries for robust thinking
- Greater understanding of their strengths + areas of opportunity
- Growth within their role
- Action, action, action

Added Bonus:

- For global participants, virtual course with personal touches helps eliminate travel fees.

What is the Creative Executive Method?

The Creative Executive Method is a six-week program taught through weekly work sessions that cover five key growth areas crucial for cultivating strong leaders, thriving teams, successful business, and creative cultures.

The Creative Executive Method's immersive sessions are designed to bring together dynamic individuals in the shared pursuit of becoming more effective leaders in their businesses and across their industry to generate real breakthroughs in business and life.

“My brain actually thinks differently since I've taken the Creative Executive Method. The way I operate on a day-to-day basis, the way I speak, and the way I listen has changed for the better. I feel I developed a stronger ability to think more critically when in a direct leadership or management situation.

VICKI M, EXECUTIVE PRODUCER, LUMA PICTURES

If The Creative Executive Method sounds like it would be a good fit for multiple people at your company, we also offer private Creative Executive Method courses.